

American Junior Chianina Association

Youth Activities and Communications Intern

Platte City, MO. - The American Junior Chianina Association (AJCA) is offering a paid internship opportunity for a collegiate upperclassman or recent college graduate with an interest in animal agriculture and association work the summer of 2021.

Successful candidate(s):

- Should be enrolled in an agriculture-related major.
- Applicant(s) should be self-motivated, detail oriented and outgoing.
- Applicant(s) will work extensively with the planning and execution of the AJCA's National Junior Chianina Show and the publishing of the American Chianina Journal.
- Applicant(s) will work in the AJCA office located in Platte City, Mo. and will be expected to begin duties as early as May 1 and no later than May 15, 2021 for a term ending by mid July.

Responsibilities will include:

- Help organize and run the 2021 National Junior Chianina Show held in Chickasha, Okla., June 19-24.
- Pre-show correspondence and social media.
- Processing entries.
- Cattle/exhibitor check-in.
- Tracking/tallying show/contest points.
- Contest organization/preparation.
- Assist with the reporting of the National Junior Chianina Show coverage through articles and press releases.
- Aid in the production of the August/September issue of the American Chianina Journal.
- Assist with post-show activities.

Deadline for application is Feb. 20, 2021.

Applicants for the internship should e-mail a cover letter, resume and three references to Heather Counts, Director of Shows & Activities at the following address:

heather@chicattle.org – 517-214-0927

American Junior Chianina Association, Platte City, MO